

Here is some of the work we have been doing on shadows. We had great fun drawing around our shadows, especially when the sun kept disappearing behind the clouds!

This is what we learned about how shadows are formed.

We even had a go at making and performing shadow puppet plays. One of the plays was a retelling of the Billy Goats Gruff. There was also a space adventure, a tale of friendship and lots more. Great teamwork everyone.

